> A wedding charming in its simplicity, unconventional in character and he of th noon at the Second Presbyterian Church The bride was Miss Ada Mae Moore, and the bridegroom was Mr. Frederic Whitney Alexander. The church was simply decorated with a mass of palms and foliage. The ceremony was pronounced by the Rev. J. Cumming Smith before a large organist, played the Mendelssohn wedding march, followed by the Schubert "Serenade" during the ceremony. The ushers who escorted the guests to their seats were Mr Edwin F. Moore, brother of the bride, Mr. William H. Hall, Mr. Harry W. Griffith, of Lexington, Ky., Mr. Ross Hamilton Wallace and Mr. Henry J. Pflester, of Cincinnati. The bride was attended by her sister. Miss Sue Ella Moore, and Miss Stella Kimmel, of Lafayette, and a little flower girl Sara Adeline Branham, who wore a dainty gown of white lace over pink silk, trimmed with pink ribbons, and carried a huge bouquet of pink carnations tied with pink baby ribbon. The bride wore a lovely gown chiffon, the whole fashioned on a foundation of corn-colored silk. The gown was simply made, with accordion plaitings on the chiffon skirt. The corsage had a skeleton yoke of the net with elbow sleeves. She carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas and wore an aigrette of Prince of Wales feathers in her hair. The maid of honor wore a pretty gown of green silk organdie. The skirt had three circular flounces around the bottom, each topped trimmed with the lace and a large rosette of ribbon. She wore a picture hat of cream lace and carried an armful of American Beauty roses. Miss Kimmel's gown was of same as Miss Moore's gown, only she wore carried American Beauty roses. Shortly after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Alexander left on a short wedding trip. For traveling the bride wore a handsome tailor gown of Oxford gray, with a smart walking hat. The at home announcement is for Tuesdays in September, at the Meridian. Among the guests who came for the wedding were the bride, and Miss Ems Wiler, of Peru, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Griffith, of

M'ABEE'S RECOMMENDATIONS.

Change at Industrial School for Girls and Woman's Prison.

State Factory Inspector McAbee has completed and forwarded to Mrs. John B. Elam, president of the board of managers of the Indiana Industrial School for Girls for certain changes in the operation of conment of the fourth floor for use as his authority to order watchwomen in this institution, but thinks that, inasmuch as hotels are required by the factory inspecion law to keep watchmen, a state institution ought to be as carefully guarded. Mr. McAbee also recommends an additional fire escape for the prison, the escape to consist of iron balconies three feet wide, taking in the middle windows on the east side of the south wing on the west side of the t-uilding to the third floor, taking in the window on that floor. He says if these in- | or the applause of the crowd, but the constructions are complied with, and he has no doubt they will be, the institution will be in excellent condition as regards precautions against danger from an outbreak

KENDALLVILLE POSTMASTER.

Senator Fairbanks Recommends Capt. George P. Alexander.

Senator Fairbanks has determined upon the appointment of Capt. George P. Alexander as postmaster at Kendallville, Ind., and the prospective incumbent has been notified. Postmaster Brillhart was a candidate for reappointment, and his name was included in a published list several weeks ago, but the announcement seems to have been premature.
